About the Business Laureates of British Columbia Hall of Fame

- The Business Hall of Fame was established by Junior Achievement in 1975 in the United States to recognize those individuals who have made outstanding contributions to free enterprise and to society. The Canadian Business Hall of Fame was created by Junior Achievement Canada in 1979
- The Business Laureates of BC Hall of Fame is an initiative of Junior Achievement of British Columbia created to honour the outstanding contributions of BC business leaders who have demonstrated excellence, integrity and sound business ethics, and have earned the respect of their peers. Their entrepreneurial and management skills, vision, determination and perseverance have helped to shape the landscape of British Columbia
- Laureates are nominated by their peers and chosen by an independent selection committee representing BC's foremost business, academic and media institutions

The Business Laureates of British Columbia are citizens who:

- have shown a Vision unique amongst their peers;
- have provided Leadership to move others to achieve their goals;
- have shown true Integrity throughout their lives;
- have built a Legacy that will enrich all those that follow.
